FROM THE PRESIDENT

In his book IT'S NOT ABOUT THE BIKE - MY JOURNEY BACK TO LIFE, Lance Armstrong writes about the Tour de France, "There is no reason to attempt such a feat of idiocy, other than the fact that some people, which is to say some people like me, have a need to search the depths of their stamina for self-definition. (I'm the guy who can take it.) It's a contest in purposeless suffering." This is from a man who knows what's really important in life. He refers to the Tour de France as "the most gallant athletic endeavor in the world", yet it is clear his victories there are secondary to having life and family. Experiencing a major illness will always teach you what is meaningful and what is less so. But maybe it's not WHAT we do in life that's so important but HOW we do it. If we take something like running a marathon and put complete heart and soul into it, run it like it really IS the most important thing in the world at that moment, then it becomes "purposeful suffering". If we learn in that controlled event to accept the pain that living in this world involves, then we have learned a valuable lesson. Carlos Castaneda calls it "controlled folly": realizing the event is ridiculous while still doing it with complete abandon. I love running a hard race, putting every last ounce of energy into it until I have spent myself completely. I trust that while the race means nothing to the benefit of the world or the advancement of my soul, still, I learn something unconscious from it. And in that, it becomes "purposeful suffering". Lance also wrote, "If you ever get a second chance in life for something, you've got to go all the way". Here's hoping you put all you are into every run and race you do. Carpe Diem, Mike Kelley

TEAMWORK INSURES ANOTHER SUCCESSFUL BUFFALO WALLOW RACE VENUE

As race day approached, it became clear that George Jury would not be able to carry out his race director duties. His health problems had put him in the hospital several times, this last time being the most serious threat to his well being. But George, being the trooper that he is had still laid out everything for the club to do to insure that the races ran without a hitch. Well, several of us started working on the race, including Mike Kelly, Ron Lubowicz, John Trompler, David Higgins and myself. It became apparent as Saturday neared that I had inherited the unofficial title of substitute race director. Both Ron and Mike ran the races while David, John and I stayed back to make sure everything that was supposed to happen did.

All I can say is that we made a wonderful team! Our successful efforts were further made possible by all the folks that volunteered including: Shirley Wigley, Joe Post, Tony Aleman, Mike Malone, Debbie Wilson, Jimmy Key, Mary Harris, Ron Hillis and Todd Davis. I actually had to turn some people away on race day once we became overstocked with volunteers. All I can say is that it is wonderful to conduct a race where everyone helps and doesn't worry about who should get credit for what. By the way, I credited the double miles that race directors get to George since he was the real race director, if only in spirit.

The weather was a little chilly and misty at first but warmed up as the half marathon race unfolded. In fact, we could have opened a store with all the clothes runners peeled off as they ran the double loop half marathon course. The overall winner of the 2 mile race was Chris Truitt, with Natalie Steadman taking overall female honors. While awards are not given for overall masters winners, I think both Al Gardner and Martha Martinez should be recognized for their fast efforts.

The half marathon was won by Glen Poklikuha with Janda Ibbetson coming in first female and second overall. In fact, three of the top six finishers were women. Way to go gals! Overall masters honors went to Chuck Spough and Aja James, 3rd and 4th in the overall finishers. A lighter Bob Bernero finally beat Bill Roger before passing out on the floor of the United following the race. James Bone was said to have asked Bob if he were alright, to which Bob replied, "What do you think, that I'm just laying here taking in the sights?" Obviously Bob is real proud of his race accomplishment since he has been repeating the story to anyone who will listen! (You've been warned!)

Seriously, I must again thank everyone for making this event the success it was, both volunteers and competitors. We had 93 finishers between the two races. James Leser

Turkey Trot 2000

What a day to be thankful for. We had it all...great weather, a tremendous turnout, a bunch of hard working volunteers, and course records broken in several age groups. All of us can be thankful too for the help of our race sponsor, Schlotsky's, and to Lubbock National Bank, PNB Financial, State National Bank, Paddle Tramps Manufacturing, and our own P.J. Mitchell for their generous door prizes for the after race drawings. And while we're thanking, let's include the AJ for their timely and very visible announcement in Wednesday's edition, KDAV for their continuous plugs on race day, the Lubbock police for making the intersections safe, and Parks Department for the use of a clean and warm facility.

But none of this would have been possible without the expert help of David Higgins, Ron Hillis, Jon Omdahl, Glen Poklikuha, Mike Kelley, James Bone, Etta Mayer, Tony Aleman, Pam Hillis, Barbara Murphy, Jim Sorley, David Preston, Jim Leser, Steve Sutton and his dad, and a lady named Leonore who handled both turnarounds. And even with our Race Director, George Jury, laid up in the hospital, we got lucky and had his son Jeff, available to host the event.

Did I say new 12K records? Congratulations to Linda Northrup and Quent Bearden in the 25 to 29 divisions, to Tia Hudon and Dave Smith in the 30 to 34 divisions, to Denise Bray and Bill Schroeder in the 35 to 39 divisions, to Bob Jackson in the 40 to 44 division, Tod Hegstrom in the 45 to 49 division, Jim Leser and Etta Mayer in the 50 to 54 divisions, Danny Galey in the 55 to 59 division, and to Dave Smith (again) for a new, course overall time of 40:20. Great job one and all!!

On a more humble note, we sincerely apologize for running out of T-shirts for those of you who pre-registered and pre-paid, but showed up after all the shirts were gone. We simply did not expect so many runners and failed to sets shirts aside for you. We will call you when the re-ordered shirts arrive. Feel free to call me to insure your name had been put on the list.

Again, thanks to everyone who ran or helped out.

Ron Lubowicz, Assistant Race Director
