President's Report

My experiences and observations have taught me that lives well lived and richly rewarded were those which were somehow connected to other lives in positive ways. Most great books of wisdom can be read to support this claim.

Our sport is built on what is good for us individually. But it reaches beyond the simple elements that affect our physical well being and touches our mental and spiritual needs as well.

When we chose to join together at events, either as participants or as volunteers, we connect ... in very positive ways ... to share this "good stuff" we carry around inside us with others who are, at the very least, just a little bit like us. Sometimes we compete a little; at other times we push each other quite hard; then there are times we simply cheer and hoot for each other ... or help others set up the finish line chute or an aid station. But we do connect. Our Club is almost entirely built on strangers who created connections.

This January 20th you will have a chance to make or improve connections with others who share your love of running. On that evening the Club will provide gallons of water, teas & soft drinks, several (what seems like tons) of BBQ brisket, turkey & sausage, club members will bring a wide assortment of covered dish goodies, and we will feast ... feast and watch slide shows, listen to professionally-jockeyed disc music, celebrate and award the successes of 2011, and welcome the dawn of our 2012 running season. Hope to see many of you there.

SYOTR, Ron

11-12-11

Texas' most challenging half-marathon (and pretty scenic for West Texas) got off to a cold, breezy start at Buffalo Springs Lake on November 12. Though the temp reached 76 degrees for the day and runners came in with salt-encrusted faces, the morning was as much a challenge as the course. The wind, with up to 40 mph gusts, was both a help and hindrance, pushing at times but mostly chilly and in-your-face...kind of like the hills.

Completing the 2 mile quickly were 88 runners, with Nick Wargo – 10:32 and Avery Rehwald – 15:45 topping the male and female divisions. Leading the 165 half-marathoners was Quent Bearden, posting 1:18.44; only 38 seconds over his 2003 age group 25-29 record. At 36 yo, I would say that's maintaining your fitness! The 1st overall female and 3rd OA in the half was Breseida Ramos with 1:26.51. Her time posts a new 25-29 age group record by 8 minutes, supplanting Sue Houle-Spitz' record of 23 years from 1988.

Of the 165 long course racers, interestingly, there were more females than males, about 85 to 80

Thanks to Dr. Tyler Johnson who offered chair massages after the race, and the Buffalo Spring Lake Police and Volunteer Fire Dept/EMS who provided protection for the runners. Hope you thanked the volunteers, without whom a race of this size and distance could not be held. They included Tony Aleman, Carrie Bird, Larry Byrd, Amanda Boston, Ben Boston, Suzan Caudle, Steve Crowell, Terry Dalton, Shanna Faries, Marty Garza, Myriam Guardiola, David Higgins, Rose Hoeve, Alexis Hoeve, Joshua Hoeve, Nick Hoeve, Randy Holloway, Michaela Jansen, Gordon Jenkins, George Jury, Ron Lubowicz, PJ Mitchell-Sullivan, Brad Morton, Katelyn Olsen, Glen Poklikua, Iris Rivero, Monica Sobolewska, and Wayne Sullivan; also Sherri Patterson who jumped in to help with the aid station after her 2 mile, and Ed Wagenaar, who came all the way from St. Louis to help out and was gracious enough to not flaunt his St. Louis Cardinal's apparel!

Mike Kelley, Race Director
