W. T. R. C. RACES ARE USUALLY HELD THE 2ND SATURDAY OF EACH MONTH.
The WTRC monthly business meeting is on Monday, November 3, 7:00 p.m. at West Texas Peterbilt, 4515 Ave. A, Sales & Leasing Office (closest to Ave A)
All members are welcome.

NOTES FROM THE PRESIDENT

Thanksgiving is coming, and with it comes one of our more social races ... the annual WTRC Turkey Trot. For you galloping gobblers who had made it out during the past few years, and FYI if you have not been able to join us, this event has become a "whole family" undertaking for many and seems to be getting more so each year. For example, last year we had one tribe with 11 runners, and several other families with 4 or more. This could be due to having nothing to do while the turkey cooks, or perhaps a way to dodge cleaning the house and getting the table set. Either way, we are glad it is happening.

This event consists of a 2 mile run and a 12 K race, both courses having USA T&F certification. We will have great looking, long sleeve shirts, medals for many, turkeys for the lead dogs, savings bonds for the top kids, complimentary bagels from Hoots, bananas, kegs of water and Gatorade, water and sports drinks in REAL BOTTLES compliments of Schlitzky's, the Race's sponsor, and a plethora of door prizes from many kind supporters.

And to continue promoting the family dimension of this event, we will be adding another award ... a trophy for the fastest family in the 2-mile run. To qualify for this prize the family must notify me by phone (745-3955), fax (445-0808) or e-mail (ronlubo@aol.com) before 5 PM on Thanksgiving eve. Cousins, nieces, nephews, aunts & uncles are acceptable "family" members. The winner will be that family whose four fastest times, when added together, have the lowest total. The only condition is that at least two of the times belong to family members under 16 years of age.

Hope to see you smiling on the road Thanksgiving Day. Ron

Special thanks must also go to Dwayne Oakeley who spent a lot of time working with course markers on Friday, then helped George prepare the start/finish lines and chute set up late that day.

We received lots of compliments for the quality manner in which the race was conducted. So, thanks to everyone who made this possible.

Buffalo Wallow Races

The gate entry fee has been raised to $2 per person this year, so race participants will have to pay this as they go through. The club will pay the volunteers fee, so call George at 793-3291 (d) or 792-1237 (n).

Turkey Trot

The Thanksgiving Day Turkey Trot is getting bigger each year. Thanks to Chris Longren and Schlotzky's for sponsorship. We will have the traditional long sleeve T Shirts for adults with expanded sizes and we will have some children's sizes in short sleeve for those under 12. Remember, there are a limited number of shirts and the first ones registered get first choice. Race day entry fee is $20. See Ron's presidents message (page 2) for details on a special "fastest family" competition to be held this year.

Thank You Notes Received

Aimee and Ashley Johnson have each sent a nice note thanking the Club for the TTU/WTRC scholarship they have received. Both were on hand at the RRRR to help out and were recognized at the awards ceremony.

Chicago LaSalle Bank Marathon

Several club members ran this year's edition of the Chicago Marathon. Finishers included Mary Branscome, 3:58:11; Judy Lawley, 3:47:17; Becky Rowley, 3:17:34; Kevin Sweeney, 3:38:09. Lubbock resident Tanya Martin finished in 4:19:46. All times listed are chip times.
