Volume 6, Issue 5

Our thoughts and prayers go to all the victims of the attack at the Boston Marathon on April 15, 2013. As a running community, this hits a little closer to home. Several members of our club, friends, and family were on the course that day and even at the site of the attack. But we are runners. We will stand strong. I'm reminded of a conversation between Samwise Gamgee and Frodo Baggins from one of the "The Lord of the Rings" movies:

Sam: It's like in the great stories Mr. Frodo, the ones that really mattered. Full of darkness and danger they were, and sometimes you didn't want to know the end because how could the end be happy? How could the world go back to the way it was when so much bad had happened? But in the end it's only a passing thing this shadow, even darkness must pass. A new day will come, and when the sun shines it'll shine out the clearer. Those were the stories that stayed with you, that meant something even if you were too small to understand why. But I think Mr. Frodo, I do understand, I know now folk in those stories had lots of chances of turning back, only they didn't. They kept going because they were holding on to something.

Frodo: What are we holding onto, Sam?

Sam: That there's some good in the world, Mr. Frodo, and it's worth fighting for.

I am a West Texas Runner By Laura Lappe

Catherine Hudson Runner. Wife. Mother. Researcher. WTRC Member since 2013

1. Why do you run?

I like to run in the morning before the sun comes up for my quiet time. As an added bonus, it is a way to improve my health and fitness as I get older.

2. What was your first race?

The 2011 Firecracker Run in Brownfield, TX. My only goal was to finish. I talked my husband and daughter into training with me and they ran this race with me for support. We picked this race because we have ties with the community through the church that we pastor there in Brownfield.

3. What is your favorite running clothing item or gear/gadget?

My iPod. On my playlist: "All for You"- Preshea Hilliard "Before I die" - Kirk Franklin

- 4. If you could run leisurely or run a race anywhere in the world, where would it be? Hawaii, on the beach.
- 5. Morning or evening runner?
 Morning

6. Favorite pre-race food?

I usually only drink water before I run. On race days I have a banana, a slice of whole wheat be with peanut butter, and a little chocolate milk.

7. Next running event you are participating in?

Most likely the Summer of Sharing Fun Run, May 27th, which benefits the South Plains Food Bank. We have made running the Firecracker sort of a tradition so I plan to do that one, too.

Run for the Arts Race Directors' Report

April 13, 2013 turned out to be a great day to run! The weather was beautiful and the runners plentiful. We had 149 one mile finishers ranging from 4 yrs old to 15 yrs old. There were 118 15K finishers and 141 2MI finishers for a grand total of 408 finishers this year in The Run for the Arts. I received many compliments on the shirts this year! They did turn out very pretty and I feel many people will enjoy wearing them. We use the logo the Arts Festival use each year for the picture, which is why it changes every year. I had input into adding the race date and name of the race to the design of the shirts. Also, I chose the color of our shirts. I hope you had a chance to go to the Arts Festival this year. Baron Batch was the feature artist and I had the privilege of meeting him.

I have many to thank for this successful race. Beginning with Terry Dalton who handled the Kid's Café Fun Run and an outstanding helper, Wendy Anderson, who took care of the race day Preregistration table for me! Thank you both so much for taking care of these important positions. For those of you running the 15K...we have Dave Drake and his crew from Accolade to thank for the #2 water stop on Broadway that took care of you coming and going! Dave's crew included himself, Amal Soomro, Tessa Johnson, and Krysten White. We really appreciate you and your very important contribution to our race. We cannot thank you enough! Another group volunteering for us this year is from General Nutrition Centers of Lubbock. Leading this group is Benito Lugo Jr and his crew Marc and Raymond. They cut up all the fruit and helped out at the first water stop and one mile turn around. We appreciate all the help these two groups did for us! There are three very special volunteers I want to recognize for their wiliness to help wherever and even work double duty! Susan Lewallen, Carol Swinconos, and Lydia Turner worked Late Registration and Preregistration on Friday and then came Saturday and worked during the race!! I couldn't have done it without you ladies! Thank you for being troopers and hanging in with me. Other volunteers that came and worked to make our race run smoothly and be a success are: Emma Wyatt, Tyler Trammel, Blake Perez, Cliff Lewallen, Mike Humphrey, Brooke Rushing, Ronnie Adams, Tony Aleman, Randy Holloway, George Jury, David Higgins, Tommy Johnson, Debbie Stafford, Mike Greer, and David Weaver. We also had an outstanding 'helper' Ronda Russell who ran the 2 mile and then helped out at one of the water stops. Thank you, Ronda! Thank all of you for everything you did!! I especially want to commend the two volunteers that stayed till the trailer was packed and loaded.....you really made a difference! I know others noticed all your hard work!

Sincerely, Suzan Caudle Dear Coach,

It takes a special person to do what you do for Team Kids Cafe. I really admire you and all that you do for the kids. Your encouragement for them to make healthy choices in what they do every day will help the kids achieve a positive change in their long term health. Your commitment, patience, and compassion have served as a positive role model to inspire the kids and show them what's really important in life. I hope you will consider coaching again next year for Team Kids Cafe.

The following story was given to me by Coach Stacy Lopez. It's a story about how we often over-look the most important things in life because we are always so busy.

It had been some time since Jack had seen the old man. College, girls, career, and life itself got in the way. In fact, Jack moved clear across the country in pursuit of his dreams. There, in the rush of his busy life, Jack had little time to think about the past and often no time to spend with his wife and son. He was working on his future, and nothing could stop him.

Over the phone, his mother told him, "Mr. Belser died last night. The funeral is Wednesday."

Memories flashed through his mind like an old newsreel as he sat quietly remembering his childhood days.

"Jack, did you hear me?"

"Oh, sorry, Mom. Yes, I heard you. It's been so long since I thought of him. I'm sorry, but honestly thought he died years ago," Jack said.

"Well, he didn't forget you. Every time I saw him he'd ask how you were doing. He'd reminisce about the many days you spend over 'his side of the fence' as he put it," Mom told him.

"I loved that old house he lived in," Jack said.

"You know Jack, after your father died, Mr. Belser stepped in to make sure you had a man's influence in your life," she said.

"He's the one who taught me carpentry," he said. "I wouldn't be in this business if it weren't for him. He spent a lot of time teaching me things he thought were important. Mom, I'll be there for the funeral," Jack said.

As busy as he was, he kept his word. Jack caught the next flight to his hometown. Mr. Belser's funeral was small and uneventful. He had no children of his own, and most of his relatives had passed away. The night before he had to return home, Jack and his Mom stopped by to see the old house next door one more time. Standing in the door way, Jack paused for a moment. It was like crossing over into another dimension, a leap through space and time. The house was exactly as he remembered. Every step held memories. Every picture, every piece of furniture...Jack stopped suddenly.

"What's wrong, Jack?" his Mom asked.

"The box is gone," he said

"What box?" Mom said.

"There was a small gold box that he kept locked on top of his desk. I must have asked him a thousand times what was inside. All he'd ever tell me was 'the thing I value most," Jack said.

It was gone. Everything about the house was exactly how Jack remembered it, except for the box. He figured someone from the Belser family had taken it.

"Now I'll never know what was so valuable to him," Jack said. I better get some sleep. I have an early flight home, Mom."

It had been about two weeks since Mr. Belser died. Returning home from work one day Jack discovered a note in his mailbox.

"Signature required on a package - no one at home. Please stop by the main post office within the next three days," the note read.

Early the next day Jack retrieved the package. The small box was old and looked like it had been mailed a hundred years ago. The handwriting was difficult to read, but the return address caught his attention. "Mr. Harold Belser" it read. Jack took the box out to his car and ripped open the package. There inside was the gold box and an envelope. Jack's hands shook as he read the note inside.

"Upon my death, please forward this box and its contents to Jack Bennett. It's the thing I valued most in my life."

A small key was taped to the letter. His heart racing, tears filling his eyes, Jack carefully unlocked the box. There inside he found a beautiful gold pocket watch. Running his fingers slowly over the finely etched casing, he unlatched the cover. Inside he found these words engraved:

"Jack Thanks for your time! Harold Belser."

The thing he valued most...was...my time. Jack held the watch for a few minutes then called his office and cleared his appointments for the next two days.

"Why?" Janet, his assistant asked.

"I need some time to spend with my son," he said. "Oh, by the way, Janet...thanks for your time!"

Speaking on behalf of all the kids of Team Kids Cafe:

"Thank you Coach for teaching me about running and how to pace myself. Thank you for teaching me how to 'Be a Champion' and how to overcome the 'shark attack' of adversity I will face. Thank you for your smile, your kind words, and your nurturing, generous spirit. But most of all, thank you for your time!"

Sincerely,

Terry Dalton
